About HRN Performance Solutions.

Expertise.

HRN Performance Solutions was founded two decades ago by career HR experts in response to a growing demand for human resource services. Since then, we've grown into a renowned human resource solutions and consulting company with an international presence that's relied upon by over 2,000 clients for critical HR management functions.

Innovation.

Our goal is to consistently offer high quality solutions and services to simplify and improve the management of your employees. HRN is dedicated to meeting and exceeding the highest performance standards, from ease of use to security and data quality to help facilitate the growth and development of your workforce.

Integrity.

We're not only committed to providing our clients with exceptional solutions and services, but to saving them time and money as well. Our professional support, sales, and consulting staff are ready to offer critical HR management solutions and consulting services that you can rely on to help make your organization productive, protected and successful.

Solutions.

HRN feels that successful organizations are built on the talent of effective employees. We understand that the successful administration of these "human resources" enables our clients to succeed. With years of practical experience and a high degree of knowledge in the field, we have the solutions needed to meet your standards of excellence.

Performance Pro

An online performance appraisal and employee development program, Performance Pro is designed by HR professionals to streamline and improve your employee development and performance evaluation system. This program is flexible, user-friendly, secure and loaded with industry-specific job position and performance content.

Compease

Make sure your employee salaries are competitive and equitable with this easy-to-use salary planning and compensation administration program. Industry-specific compensation data is updated each year and is customizable by your organization size and location. When you purchase Compease, you get on-site installation, salary data configuration and training by an HRN Performance Solutions consultant.

HR Suite

HR Suite is a cost-effective and complete human resource compliance solution. Researched and written by employment law experts, this online collection of human resource management tools and services includes an HR Policy Manual for managers and supervisors, an Employee Handbook and an extensive library full of HR resources.

Job Descriptions Plus

Our library of more than 200 complete and editable job descriptions is written by HR and legal experts. This value-priced CD-ROM includes a job description guide, job analyses and worksheets covering ADA and FLSA, all in easy to understand language. Individual job descriptions are also available for purchase and download.

Performance Appraisal Forms

This is a collection of evaluation templates and worksheets to help you conduct paper-based performance appraisals. Each performance review template comes in two basic forms. One evaluates performance factors only, while the other enables you to perform both factor and goal evaluation.

Employee Handbook Plus

Employee Handbook Plus utilizes HR Suite's Employee Handbook, in addition to several other useful forms, to offer an affordable HR compliance solution. These easily customizable and printable documents can prevent unwarranted litigation and provide clear employment guidelines.

HR Forms and Tools

We offer a collection of over 200 HR forms and resources, all developed and written by HR and legal experts. Purchase them as a complete package or in separate bundles. HR Forms and Tools can help you manage your day-to-day human resource functions and promote legal compliance.
